

Arts & Entertainment

Logistics

Personalized Medicine

Automotive

Targeted Areas

Matt McCollister
Vice President, Economic Development
Columbus Chamber
800.950.1321
matt_mccollister@columbus.org

The Columbus Region

The Columbus Region

Be here.

Get there.

We're incredibly well-connected.

Located within a one-day drive or a one-hour flight of nearly half the population of the U.S. and Canada, The Columbus Region is perfectly situated to connect your business to its most important resources.

We're already home to 15 Fortune 1,000 companies, six of which are Fortune 500, 18 colleges and universities, and 1.7 million people, and since we're the third fastest-growing major metropolitan area in the Midwest, we're in a great position to help you grow, too.

Our team connects you to what you need when you need it.

- > Confidential site selection services & assistance
- > Available real estate
- > Incentives & business tax information
- > Key contacts & introductions
- > Demographic, wage & economic data
- > Regulatory navigation assistance
- > Access to workforce training & recruitment resources
- > Community tours/site visit

To find out more, visit www.columbus.org

How we rank:

- > Columbus: seventh strongest economy in the nation. (POLICOM, August 2006)
- > A top ten best city to live. (MONEY magazine, August 2006)
- > All-America City recognition. (National Civic League, June 11, 2006)
- > Ohio: #6 nationally for Competitiveness Award. (Site Selection magazine, April 2006)
- > Ohio: second in business attraction. (Site Selection magazine, March 2006)
- > A top 50 hottest city for expansion and relocation. (Expansion Management Magazine, Feb. 2006)

The Columbus Region

Be here. Get there.