Blue & Co. Hires Practice Development Specialist

Columbus, OH – Blue & Co., LLC, one of the nation’s leading CPA/Business Advisory firms, is pleased to announce that Anna Rogers will join the firm as their Practice Development Specialist. Anna will work out of the Columbus, OH office.

Brad Shaw, director-in-charge of the Columbus office said, “Blue had a growth plan in place prior to the downturn, but it was important to adapt our growth strategies. With Anna’s business development background and nine years marketing professional services, we look forward to her contributions as we expand our brand and services in the Ohio marketplace.”

“There are many opportunities where Blue’s services are needed and I’m excited to be part of their already successful practice development and marketing initiatives, added Rogers.”
