

Columbus: Seize the Economic Growth Opportunity In Your Community

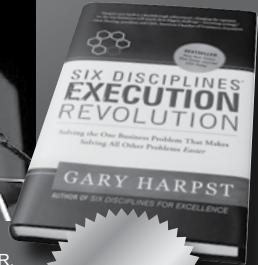

Columbus ranks 7th in the nation for the number of “high-impact” companies in its community – those organizations experiencing both significant revenue growth and expanding employment.* Yet under 3% of Columbus’ 80,000 businesses are considered to be “high-impact.”

The good news? There’s a revolutionary new approach to accelerate the economic growth and performance of not only the top 3%, but also the other 97% – the overwhelming majority of Columbus businesses!

Join CEO and bestselling author Gary Harpst as he launches the 50-city Economic Acceleration Tour. He’ll reveal his breakthrough plan that significantly increases the performance and predictability of both new and existing companies throughout the Columbus business community.
